NVSL Diving Recognizes Overlee for 16 Years of Cracker Jack Support
July 26, 2004

From the Meet Managers:

What do you call a kid who can dive like that?

Congratulations to all our Crack Jack divers!

Beginning divers from all across Northern Virginia gathered on July 25 to show their stuff at Overlee Pool in Arlington. The annual Cracker Jack Invitational, the world's largest one-day diving competition, had 320 divers participating in 2004, in spite of overcast skies and drizzly weather.

Established in the late 1980s to provide a skill-appropriate championship for beginning divers, this meet exemplifies the goals of the NVSL:

“To develop in the in the children affected by this program a love for the sport, advanced aquatic skills, teamwork, and the principles of good sportsmanship.”

Thanks to some wonderful volunteers, the officers of NVSL diving, and the Board of Directors at Overlee pool, we were once again able to bring the thrill and excitement of a major diving competition to our newest divers.

To all who helped make the 2004 Cracker Jack Invitational a great experience for athletes and spectators, please accept our sincere thanks for a job well done. We look forward to seeing you all again next year.

Sandie Doptis & Bridget Hunter

In addition . . .

At the annual Cracker Jack Diving Invitational on Sunday, July 25, NVSL Diving took the opportunity to recognize Overlee for hosting the meet 16 of its 17 years. Bob McKinney, NVSL Vice President for Diving expressed NVSL's appreciation to Overlee and presented a plaque to Marianne Gick, President of the Overlee Community Association Board. The plaque read: “The Northern Virginia Swimming League (Diving) thanks Overlee for hosting the Annual Cracker Jack Invitational Dive Meet for the last 16 years (1989 to 2004). The Cracker Jack meet is the largest developmental meet conducted in a single day in the United States. Roughly 5,000 divers have participated in this meet since its inception.” (photo below)
