GRADUATING SENIORS

JACKSON BERTMAN (Highland Park)

Jackson started his dive career at Highland Park in 2011 at age 7 and has coached for the team for several years. He dove for Thomas Edison High School over the past 4 years. He will continue his diving career at Lawrence University in Appleton, Wisconsin where he intends to study history.

EVAN BROWN (Kent Gardens)

Evan has been diving with Kent Gardens for 5 years, and coaching for 4 years. He has enjoyed every bit of his time there, and especially love the spirit that the team brings to all of our meets. Evan plans on diving at Duke university next year and could not have done it without the help of Leigh Anne and Sina.

SPENCER DEARMAN (Oakton)

Spencer started diving with Dominion Dive Club just shy of his 11th birthday and he immediately took to it. As a diver on the Oakton High School Dive Team, Spencer has attended states for three consecutive years, placing 4th this past year. Spencer also received All American Recognition 3 years in a row. Spencer was elected as team captain of the Oakton Dive Team and was able to help mentor the younger divers of the Oakton High School Dive Team. Spencer has qualified and competed at NVSL All-stars 5 times placing second in 2021. In the fall, Spencer will be attending The University of Chicago and will be on their dive team, and he currently plans on studying either Molecular Engineering or Computer Science.

MAGGIE DI SCIPIO (Lee Graham)

This summer ends 15 years of diving at Lee Graham for Maggie Di Scipio. Maggie thanks Coach Tom Blakeman for her love of diving. After a few years of summer dive, Maggie started diving year-round with Coach Tim Fisher at Alexandria Dive Club. Thanks to Coach Tom and Coach Tim and so many others who have taught and mentored her, Maggie holds three of the four Lee Graham Pool diving records, she is a three time All Star Champion, she has qualified for USA Diving Nationals four times, she is the Falls Church High School diving record holder, she was the state Silver Medalist in Virginia High School Class 5 as a freshman, and the state Bronze Medalist in Virginia High School Class 6 as a senior. She was named a High School All-America for girls diving in 2022. Maggie is thrilled that she will continue her diving career with the Colorado State University Rams in Ft. Collins, Colorado. She is a Green and Gold Scholarship recipient at CSU majoring in biomedical sciences. She is grateful to everyone who has helped her along the way. Maggie gives special thanks to her Mom and Dad and her older sisters, Addie and Jojo, for all the years they spent poolside volunteering and cheering for her over the past fifteen years.

JACOB FISHER (Mansion House)

Jacob Fisher graduated this year from Mount Vernon High School. He will attend Virginia Tech in the Fall where he will continue diving and plans to major in Criminology. Jacob's diving career so far includes a Crackerjack Champion, a Divisionals championship, and 2-time runner up state champion. For the last 10 years he has been an USA Diving National qualifier. He has been a club diver and coach for the Alexandria Dive Club and Mansion House Club. In addition to his dive achievements Jacob has earned the rank of Eagle Scout with the Boys Scouts of America. Jacob's dedication to the sport of diving is evident not only by his scores but by his exceptional contribution to the future of the sport through coaching.

SALLY HARRINGTON (Mantua)

Sally Harrington has been a member of the Mantua Dive team for 10 years. She has been an assistant coach for three of those years. Sally recently broke a 24-year Mantua Senior Girls Dive record by 10.1 points. She currently holds both the senior girls and freshman girls records at our pool. Sally has inspired countless younger divers to follow in her footsteps. Sally will dive at the collegiate level for the University of Richmond Spiders starting this fall. She plans to study mathematical economics.

AVA SMIALOWICZ (Arlington Forest)

When Ava was around ten years old, she joined the Arlington Forest dive team as a freshman diver. She has also been a part of her high school's dive team at Washington-Liberty. In addition to diving, she enjoys playing soccer as well as water skiing in upstate New York. This season, she became an assistant coach. Her favorite thing about the Arlington Forest dive team is how incredibly supportive it is. This fall, Ava will be attending the College of William & Mary. She will be studying abroad in London for her first semester. She is planning on majoring in psychology.

CLAIRE VROOM (Great Falls)

Claire Vroom has been a member of the Great Falls dive team for 10 years and an assistant coach for the past three years. Claire graduated from Langley High School where she was a four-year varsity letter member of the Langley Swim and Dive Team, a four-time 6A State Championship meet diver (placing second in 2022), and a three-time All American Diver. She currently holds the Langley High School six-dive meet record high score. Claire also dives for Dominion Dive Club and has attended numerous USA Diving National Competitions. In the fall, Claire will attend Cornell University where she will dive with the Cornell Swim and Dive Team. She plans to study environment and sustainability.

MICAELA WELLS (Camelot)

Micaela has been on the Camelot Knights Dive Team since 2015, when she switched over from swimming. She is currently a head dive coach. As a vocalist, Micaela has performed the national anthem at many NVSL meets. During her time at Thomas Jefferson High School, Micaela was captain of the varsity dive and gymnastics teams. She is proud to have a hand in inspiring younger team members to love diving as much as she does. The recipient of this year's NVSL Presidents' Award scholarship, Micaela will continue her education this fall at Georgetown University.
