2024 GRADUATING SENIORS

Emily Bush (Ilda)

Emily Bush has been a member of the Ilda swim and dive team since she was 4 years old, fearless in the water and learning how to swim. When she was 6, she decided to try the dive team and realized diving was way more fun than swimming. As a member of Dominion dive club, she spent many evenings practicing on dry boards, trampolines, and at the rec center. She was a member of the Bishop Ireton high school swim and dive team for four years. At 16, she became Ilda's youngest head coach ever. She continues to share her enthusiasm for dive with divers young and old as she encourages them to try new dives and push themselves past the point of apprehension. Emily hopes to check out the dive club at the University of Vermont in the fall as a fun way to take a break from her studies in neuroscience.

Anthony Maull (Hamlet)

I have been a diver with Hamlet for the last 8 years and for the last 5 I have had the pleasure of being the team's assistant coach. I've enjoyed working with divers and seeing them improve. Watching divers value my guidance and corrections has easily been one of the most rewarding things for me to see throughout the years. While being a role model for many of the young divers on the team has been a big responsibility it has also been one of the biggest honors of my life and I cannot be more grateful. In the next four years I plan to go to Colorado State University to study Physics. And while my time as a diver at Hamlet has ended I will aim to continue to carry the values diving with Hamlet has taught me.
