2025 GRADUATING SENIORS

Trey Gagermeier

Trey began swimming at Camelot at the age of 4 and started diving as a Freshman, following in the footsteps of his two older sisters, Abby and Lauren. Trey earned the Dive Team's Most Improved Award in both 2013 and 2017.

He has been coaching the swim team for 5 years and is now also a lifeguard for the pool. His favorite dive memory is some of the legendary paper plate awards he earned while on the team.

Trey became an Eagle Scout last year. He chose Camelot as the benefactor for his Eagle project. He converted the pathway lights to solar and erected a monument sign for the pool.

Trey graduated from Falls Church High School and was on the Cross Country, Swim & Dive, and Track & Field teams for the Jaguars.

Trey will attend George Mason University in the Fall. Go Patriots! He plans to study Tourism & Hospitality Management. He hopes to join Club Running or Swimming at Mason.

Maia McAllister

Maia graduated with honors from Falls Church High School where she was a 4 year 3 season athlete. In the fall she will attend James Madison University where she plans to major in business with a concentration in finance.

Ryan Wells

Ryan joined the Knights as a swimmer at age 4 and joined the dive team when he was 7. Ryan has been a dive coach for 4 years, and has broken 3 out of 4 age group records.

Outside of the NVSL, Ryan is an Eagle Scout and was the captain of the TJ swim and dive team. He dives for Dominion Dive Club and made 1 meter Zones this year. Ryan will continue diving in college at Case Western Reserve University where he will study engineering.

Ryan's favorite times on the team are when he sees kids pushing themselves to improve and the fun Friday mat wars.

Ryan is incredibly grateful to the NVSL for all the opportunities, friendships and support that it has offered.
